1 be available to try cases, and that's just the way it is and so
2 forth.

3 So there we are. There we are. Any questions or 4 statements?

5 MS. LONDON: Your Honor, I have a question, perhaps a
6 statement.

7 We appreciate Your Honor's guidance on that. It's very 8 helpful. We understand Your Honor's position on discovery as 9 to the Wave 1 cases, and we will continue to complete
10 discovery.

11 One adjustment to that we would ask for is on experts and 12 as well as the pretrial motions, such as summary judgment and 13 all the like. With all of that entire schedule, is it your 14 expectation, Your Honor, that those are all going to move at 15 the same time; that Your Honor would hear all the summary
16 judgments --

17 THE COURT: Yes.

18 MS. LONDON: -- all the Dauberts --

19 THE COURT: Yeah.

20 MS. LONDON: -- all the everything?

21 THE COURT: Everything.

22 MS. LONDON: Okay.

23 THE COURT: Yeah.

24 MS. LONDON: So then --

25 THE COURT: You know what my intention is? If it's

1 not clear, I'll say it now nice and clear. Write it down.

2 My intention is to pick a jury the week of January 6 and
3 to go to trial January 14th. And so if anything has to be done
4 in advance of those dates for the cases in Number 1, that's it.

5 MS. LONDON: Understood, Your Honor. Then we will --
6 we will make heaven and earth move to meet Your Honor's
7 expectations.

8 But we did just want to make the statement, Your Honor,
9 that, you know, we are -- we also want these trials to be 10 meaningful; and spreading our -- all of our collective time and 11 resources thin, we are -- we have some concerns about all of 12 that, including, you know, there's a number of other motions
13 and issues that have been coming up not related to the 14 bellwether cases and the like.

15 So we'll try to focus our efforts and focus our energies,
16 Your Honor; but our -- if Your Honor is inclined to not have 17 the first case be a defense pick, then, you know, we perhaps 18 suggest focusing just on the plaintiff picks, then, as a way of 19 just focusing our effort and energy and our experts' time.

20 THE COURT: Well, there is one -- there is one defense
21 pick -- now I have to find it. Hold on. Let's see where it
22 is -- which is the -- well, the WHB 832, is that a defense
23 pick?

24 MS. LONDON: Yes, Your Honor.

25 MS. VARTAIN: Yes.
